 Gentlemen.

I rec'd your Catalogue this day, and your sale taking place yesterday it was too late to wire bids. I certainly should liked to have had a chance at the 1838 Dol. Have been trying to get one for some time, Suppose there will be other opportunities in the future, I also noticed a number of Proof Sets that I needed, Kindly send me priced Catalogue of this Sale and also one of the Warner Sale 1884, for which I enclose Express Order for $1⁴⁵ to cover price of both, Sorry I did not receive Catalogue in time as I noticed many Nos. that I would have liked.

Truly Yours

Mess. S. H & H. Chapman

Gentlemen,

Your favour regarding my collection of coins reached me promptly. Am sending it on to Mr. Low however who is now ~~Cataloguing~~ preparing Catalogue for an Auction Sale early in Oct. I would much have preferred to have sold the collection outright, and don't see how I overlooked writing you, But 'tis done, and I will hope 'twas well done, Yes our relations were always very pleasant, and a great many of my choicest specimens I obtained of your firm. You will recognize many of them in Catalogue -

Very Resp'y Yours
H. G. Brown
